

A multi-colored rainbow with seven distinct bands of red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet, arching over the text.

MUSIC ROCKS WITH LISA FOX

Launching in 2024, 'Music Rocks with Lisa Fox,' is an intimate and interactive musical experience bursting with fun for your little one!

Held at the House of Creative Learning in Port Lincoln, 'Music Rocks with Lisa Fox' is a small group, live music class with a big focus on FUN. Drawing on her experience as a musician, primary educator and music teacher, Lisa will have your little person singing, dancing, playing, learning and exploring the incredible world of music. As there are strictly limited spots, bookings are essential. Classes are 45 minutes long, and will run on Wednesday mornings in alignment with the school term.

Priority will be given to students who enrol for the entire term for the investment of $150 for 10 classes, Casual spots may be available from week to week for $20 - subject to availability. Accompanying adult FOC, siblings under 6 months FOC. No age limits apply, activities and songs will be altered to suit your child's interests and abilities.

To secure your child's class for 2024, please contact Lisa ASAP on 0427 123 719 or email lisafoxmusician@gmail.com